iUniverse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 112 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. I often wondered why it was that parents normally get on better with their grandchildren than their own children. As a mother of two children, three stepchildren, and a grandmother of fourteen grandchildren, I discovered why. It was because we listen to what they have to say. We also spend more quality time, and have more patience with them, and I am a full-time working granny! In 1999-2000, whilst babysitting six of the grandchildren, to get them to settle down and out of boredom, I took them for a walk around the garden to look at plants, insects, and whatever else we could find. I began to tell a story from my imagination, as I often did. I also recorded tapes for them with sounds and voice changes so that they could listen to the stories that I would read; some I read from books, and others I had made up. The stories not only encouraged bedtime, it actually encouraged discipline. The way they were captivated with the fiction in my mind made me realize I could write all sorts of fiction storybooks for children. They wanted to hear more of Papilio each and every time they visited. In The Adventures of Papilio the Butterfly, Mama Mocker Swallowtail takes her cocoon to the waterfall, so that she can teach her new baby how to get back home safely through the perils of life. The newly emerged butterfly experiences the spray of the waterfall, singing bluebells and the warm sunshine. With his first taste of discipline, the butterfly, scolded for not listening to instruction, is given a name and they start on their journey. He learns about the hazards of life: spider webs, blackbirds, dragonflies, AND his worst...
