Brand New Book  Print on Demand .M lin and his companion, Lore Chenatikan are on a centuries-long quest to reunite the seven elements of the Medallion of Lorn. When the medallion s creator, Lorn Chenatikan, the greatest of all the mages is murdered by one of his three apprentices, he scatters the separate magical jewels to the furthest reaches of the Seven Universes. Following Lorn s death, M lin and Lore wage a continuing war against the murderous Troy and his followers - until Troy kills M lin. Lore saves her companion s life spark and secretes it within an infant on twentieth-century Earth, and the child grows into Rob Melyn, a secondary school language teacher. The story begins when Troy, believing he is close to discovering the hiding place of the Medallion of Lorn, deals Rob Melyn a savage beating, aided by two of his powerful supporters. M lin s persona is buried so deep within Rob s mind, that he can reveal nothing, even under torture; and as a final codicil to the beating, Troy shoots him in the head. Rob wakes up in hospital, with a policewoman at his bedside and the beautiful Lore Chenatikan beside her. From that moment onwards, Rob s ordinary life becomes extraordinary as Lore rescues him from the ministrations of primitive medics who do not use even the simplest of magic . Lore helps Rob to escape from the hospital to his home, and an incredulous Rob watches as she magically draws out the bullet from his brain and then proceeds to unlock the deeply hidden memories of M lin, the most talented of Lorn s apprentices. The two mages then resume their search for the...
