The Promise of Morning. O'er the horizon, through cloud-rifts, The sun-god peeps before he lifts The curtain of the skies; Like candles after some great feast, The stars die out, and in the East The shadows slowly rise. Kissed by the sunshine, washed with rain, The face of Nature smiles again, The brooks laugh as they flow; The leaves appear, and blossoms white
Clothe bush and tree with raiment bright A drapery like snow. The sun dissolves the misty veil, Which, rising, leaves a shining trail Behind of silver thread; And dew drops sparkle like rare gems That glisten on queen's diadems, Or tears that angels shed.
