DR. TAYLOR. I know, my lord, That, vampire-like, ye seek to suck my blood--Well, thou shalt have it, if God willeth so; For ye can do no more than he permits; Though his permission will not thee release From murder foul that s boiling in thy mind. Mark ye my words before it is too late, That God will surely visit ye for this, If not in this, for certes in world to come. Durham. Good master Doctor, we all wish thee well, And earnestly advise thee for thy good! Thou art a learned man, as I...
