Reorganization after March 3, 1917. --In case of the 107 reorganization, consolidation, or change of ownership of a trade or business after March 3, 1917, if an interest or control in such trade or business of 50 per cent or more remains in control of the same persons, corporations, associations, partnerships, or any of them, then in ascertaining the invested capital of the trade or business no asset transferred or received from the prior trade or business shall be allowed a greater value than would have been allowed under these regulations in computing the invested capital of such prior trade or business if such asset had not been so transferred or received, unless such asset was paid for specifically as such, in cash or tangible property, and then not to exceed the actual cash or actual cash value of the tangible property paid therefor at the time of such payment. Art. 51. Invested capital for prewar period. --The invested capital 108 for the prewar period shall, in general, be determined in the same manner as for the taxable year, except that the valuation as of January 1, 1914, shall not apply to tangible property paid in for stock or shares. Art. 52. Scope of section 210. --Section 210 provides for exceptional cases in which the invested capital can not be satisfactorily determined. In such cases the taxpayer may submit to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue evidence in support of a...
