Reviews

This book will not be simple to get going on reading but extremely exciting to read through. Yes, it can be play, still an interesting and amazing literature. I am very easily could possibly get a delight of reading a written book.

The Womans American Baptist Home Mission Society of New England continues to co-operate with us in the most satisfactory manner. They have shown great zeal, intelligence and industry in the collecting of money, and have paid into our treasury, chiefly for educational work, during the year, the sum of 19, 307. 18. That Society, while thus contributing directly to our work, maintains its own autonomy, determines for itself the amount of money it will contribute, selects the field where it shall be expended, nominates the teachers, and fixes their salaries. This arrangement seems well nigh an ideal one. Q The annual reports of the American Baptist Home Mission Society for 1838, 1858 and 1860 are required to complete a file. Any subscriber who can spare one or more of these reports will confer a favor by writing to the Corresponding Secretary, 1 11 Fifth Avenue, New York City. The subject of this sketch was born a slave in Clinton County, Mo. , January 1st, 1855, and received her freedom by the Emancipation Proclamation. Her master had very strong personal reasons for being interested in her welfare, and encouraged her early education. After gaining her freedom, she continued to prosecute her studies with diligence and fitted herself for teaching in the public schools, which she did with great success for twenty years. For the last six years she has been engaged in traveling and lecturing in the interest of the Western College, located...
