He graduated from Government College, Lahore with a master s degree in philosophy. He taught there while he established his reputation as an Urdu poet. These ideas found expression in his long poems written in Persian, presumably to gain his ideas an audience in the Moslem world outside India. Becoming convinced that Muslims were in danger from the Hindu majority if India should become independent, he gave his support to Jinnah as the leader of India s Muslims. He is perhaps the last great master of the famous four-line ruba i form of poetry, having composed over 550 of them in Persian Urdu.
