Reviews

A whole new eBook with a brand new point of view. It is definitely simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the publication. I am just pleased to explain how this is the greatest ebook i have read during my very own daily life and could be he best ebook for possibly.

Not illustrated. 1891 Excerpt: .be able to read understanding the more difficult selections, which, in subject-matter, are not too far above them. They should be able to express clearly and correctly the subject-matter of such selections. Beading and the other language exercises should enable the pupils to spell and punctuate correctly. Should the same faults often occur, the teacher must devote special attention thereto. Words alike in sound and foreign words in common use demand special drill. In penmanship the German and Latin scripts are practiced at stated hours. Proverbs and sayings of the people serve as copies. Pupils must learn to write neatly and legibly. The different forms of sentences are studied with reference to punctuation; parts of speech; the formation and use of participles; the declension of adjectives with and without definite and indefinite articles; the declension of pronouns; prepositions and their uses; government of verbs and adjectives; conjugation of verbs; analysis of sentences; direct and indirect discourse; word-building. All the work is introduced and practiced with practical examples. In composition the reproduction exercises are continued and short themes are written on familiar subjects. Pupils are often asked, at the close of a lesson in natural history, geography, the history of the Fatherland and religion, to write what they have learned. Careful attention is paid to ordinary business forms, letters, bills, notes, receipts, etc. Letters are prepared ready to post. All written work should be done neatly. c. Arithmetic. The pupils should acquire a thorough knowledge of practical...
