Enough has now been told. The reader s imagination can supply the rest. The fire that came suddenly down upon that darkened and desolate hearth, did not again go out. There is warmth and light there still--happy hearts and cheerful I WHAT SHALL I.DO? You won t go out this stormy evening, Mrs. Merrill said to her husband, who had commenced putting on his overcoat. If I can do any good, I shall not care for the rain, Mr. Merrill replied, cheerfully, as he buttoned his coat up close to his chin. But the wind drives the rain so. You will be wet through. No matter. I am neither butter nor salt, smilingly returned the husband. Don...
