These disturbers were not so much like men usurping power, as asserting their natural place in society. Their rising was to illuminate and beautify the world. Their conquest over their competitors was by outshining them. The hand that, like a destroying angel, smote the country, communicated to it the force and energy under which it suffered. I do not say (God forbid) I do not say, that the virtues of such men were to be taken as a balance to their crimes ; but they were some corrective to their effects. Such was, as I said, our Cromwell. Such were your whole race of Guises, Corides, and Colignis. Such the Richlieus, . who in more quiet times acted in the spirit of a civil war. Such, as better, men, and in a less dubious cause, were your Henry the 4th and your Sulhy, though...
