Upon Thanksgiving Day, when our countrymen attest their faith in the essential unity of humanity by joining without regard to differences in creed in a common ascription of praise to Him, whom our Norse ancestry so! Beautifully named the All Father, in this presence of teachers, to whom is delegated that responsible function of the State, the education of its children, and in this place, where our nation had its new birth of freedom, and whose soil is hallowed by a nation s tears, we can appropriately meditate upon that wondrous and ghastly phenomenon of human life, which found its awful expression upon this peaceful plain thirty-one years ago, and which here, as elsewhere, and through all the ages, has been the supreme agony and travail of humanity, whereof great.
