O. , 2006. LC Number: KF26 . H63 2006f OCLC Number: (OCoLC)76804447 Excerpt: . . . 11 Whenever we talk about this, and I stand on my record and my past as chairman of one of Americas most successful companies. You, Rob Portman, know the company very well, having known the last CEO. So I am not embarrassed to talk about these things without risking the accusation of class warfare. That is such an unfair designa-tion. Because if there is class warfare, it is against those who are struggling to make a living. For what we spent last week to give wealthy Americans more tax cuts, we could have enabled another 2. 8 million youngsters to at-tend a public college. We could have provided health insurance for every uninsured child in America. We could have hired 225, 000 public school teachers and still had enough left over to scan every cargo container coming through our ports. In the business world, where I come from, a company that fol-lowed the fiscal policies as this Administration is doing would have soon been out of business. Now President Bush has presided over the largest fiscal reversal in our Nations history, from a 236 billion surplus in 2000 to a projected 423 billion deficit in 2006. During his 5 years in office, the total national debt has increased by 50 percent and is now ap-proaching 9 trillion. Saddling our children and grandchildren with this burden is wrongheaded. We all know we can do better. But at the very least, we can hope that Mr. Portman, with his knowledge...
