BREMER JAHRBUCH DER WELTSCHIFFAHRT 1954/55 / BREMEN WORLD SHIPPING YEARBOOK

Berlin Springer. Sonstige Video. Book Condition: Neu. 244x170x mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Titel. Neuware - The first edition of the Bremen World Shipping Yearbook, published in 1953, met with a conspicuously good reception in professional circles at home and abroad. The international shipping press as well as the competent men of science and shipping industry in the widest sense of the word warmly commended the new publication. The widespread interest, the general demand for a continuation of this work and the overall recognition have encouraged the author, Dr.G.A.THEEL, to cope once more with all the difficulties arising from a fundamentally new analysis of 1953/54-World Shipping as offered by this book. In order to render the book directly accessible to interested professional circles abroad, a bilingual edition is presented this time. This together with the necessary extension of statistical data would have sent up the price of this book considerably. Consequently a solution had to be found for cutting down the printing costs without, however, reducing the scientific value of this book. Considering the general boost of printing charges, it has become almost impossible to edit an extensive scientific work with widely diversified statistical data and graphs in a normally printed form and at a reasonable price, acceptable to all interested circles. 876 pp. Deutsch.
