New is a variant of ngw; so that news is that which is now. 5-The better good news 13-15. During his minority the council shall rule well, and in his full and ripened years he himself shall rule well. 27. Danger a great source of danger. In M. of V. ii. 1, 15, You stand within his dfinggr, do you not it means power to do mischief, and the word danger strikes the keynote of the piece. Derived from Latin dominus through an old form dominarium, which consonified the ia into ja, and gave Old French dongier. Dongezm is from the same root. The word danger was a very great word in Medisaval literature, both French and English. It means (1) the fines and nalties due to the superior or do-minus, as in the phrase lea danger bois, which Cotgrave defines as the americiaments and oonfiscations adjudged to the King by the oflicers of woods and forests. (2) It is used in allegorical poems as the name of one of the personages, either the father, husband, or lover, who has some superior...
