If they are only to replace the wretched Ministry of 1865, why cross the street to claim a vote or to give one? V113 should the new voters so much as move a finger to send one more Radical to be 0. hewer of wood and drawer of water for patrician to vote for Bills which move some thousandth fraction of an moh towards an end after which we are all ardently longing, to support elaborately unsatisfactory solutions of fifth-rate questions? The truth is, that people are weary of the old divisions and the old issue and the old names, because they have lost all their meamng Whig and Tory mean nothing, and point to nothing, and ten us nothing about the men who are so called. The true and substantial division now is between the Obstructionist party and the National Party, between the party of Privilege and the Party of the Nation. Good old Tories are said to be thankful that, l1, n n W111 nW n longer call them Conservatives. They are mistaken. accirzzgle 5:111 Lot Perish. It will describe many of them more their f y an.efTe, and they will receive a whole wmg frgfl1 ormer enennes. Conservative will continue to be the pomB name for Obstructionist. Whigs and Tories both will find their obstructive resources more severely taxed than ever. If the Reform Act means anything--and though it does not mean so much...
