

College Bound: How to Prepare, Pick, Pay Less for College in the 21st Century

By Jason Franklin

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My five year old was getting ready to start kindergarten. He was so excited! I looked at him and said, Jon, in 12 years you will be finishing up high school and will go on to Northwestern University, where your college education will cost you over half a million dollars. That sounds ridiculous, and yet that is what has happened in our country during the first twelve years of the 21st Century. Our children live in a different world: college costs are skyrocketing, high college loans are the norm, and job prospects for recent college graduates are slim compared to last century. This book will provide your family with a common sense approach to the college bound process. This information will save you tens of thousands of dollars and better prepare your student for life beyond college. Parents must be involved. The time is now to learn how. Jason s specific advice is backed up with real life examples. Very informative! It is great to have the information in one place. Great information to deal with...
